

This patient suffered from fibromyalgia and was bedridden the better part of the last 7 years from extreme pain. She has made a complete turnaround in 1 month and is able to play with her child again and resume a normal life. You can see the obvious changes in both her thermography scans and cervical curve returning to normal.

