General Patient Consent for Care Form

General Consent to Care: I, the undersigned, for myself or a minor child or another person for whom I have authority to sign, hereby consent to medical care and treatment, as ordered by a provider, while such medical care and treatment is provided through Allied Pain Relief Clinic on an outpatient/ office visit basis. This consent includes my consent for all medical services rendered under the general or specific instructions of a provider; including treatment by a mid-level provider (Nurse Practitioner or Physician Assistant), and other health care providers or the designees under the direction of a physician, as deemed reasonable and necessary. I agree and acknowledge that Allied Pain Relief Clinic is not liable for the actions or omissions of, or the instructions given by the physicians/providers who treat me while I am a patient. I am aware that the practice of medicine is not an exact science and I acknowledge that no guarantees have been made to me as to the result of treatments or examinations at Allied Pain Relief Clinic. Telemedicine I understand that telemedicine (defined as the use of medical information exchanged from one site to another via electronic communications for the health of the patient, including consultative, diagnostic, and treatment services) may be employed to facilitate my medical care. All-electronic transmission of data will be restricted to authorized recipients in compliance with the Federal Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPPA) and applicable state privacy laws.

To the Patient: You have the right to discuss the treatment plan with your physician about the purpose, potential risks and benefits of any test ordered for you. If you have any concerns regarding any test or treatment recommend by your health care provider, we encourage you to ask questions. By signing below, you are indicating that (1) you intend that this consent is continuing in nature even after a specific diagnosis has been made and treatment recommended; and (2) you consent to treatment at this office or any other satellite office under common ownership. The consent will remain fully effective until it is revoked in writing. You have the right at any time to discontinue services.

Signed Consent:

I hereby give my consent to treat minor child/children below, which is under the legal age of eighteen years of age, to receive medical care and/or treatment from the providers of Methodist Medical Group. Any care deemed medically necessary may be provided with or without my presence:

Child: _____ Date of birth _____

Child: _____ Date of birth _____

H. ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

According to the Ohio Revised Code 5160-1-13.1, services that are not covered by the MEDICAID program may be billed to the consumer when the consumer is notified in writing, prior to the service being rendered, that the provider will NOT bill Ohio Medicaid. The consumer must sign a written statement (this form) agreeing to be liable for payment of the non-covered services.

This notice also serves as a voluntary notice for all Medicare Part B beneficiaries. According to CMS Claims Processing Manual Publication 100-04, CH 30, S50, providers may notify beneficiaries of their financial liability for services Medicare never covers. Medicare will NOT be billed and you will be asked to pay for the services outlined above.

*If you have other questions on this notice or Medicare billing, call 1-800-MEDICARE (1-800-633-4227/TTY: 1-877-486-2048).
and the Medicaid Consumer hotline can be reached at 800-324-8680*

NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICE--EFFECTIVE 02/01/2017

Security Officer: Todd MacGregor

Email: aprcrelif1@yahoo.com

Your Information. Your Rights. Our Responsibilities.

This notice describes how medical information about you may be used and disclosed and how you can get access to this information. If you have any questions, concerns or complaints you can contact the security office above.

Please review the following information carefully.

Your Rights. You have the right to the following: Get a copy of your paper or electronic medical record; Correct your paper or electronic medical record; Request confidential communication; Ask us to limit the information we share; Get a list of those with whom we've shared your information; Get a copy of this privacy notice; Choose someone to act for you; File a complaint if you believe your privacy rights have been violated.

Your Choices. You have some choices in the way that we use and share information as we: Tell family and friends about your condition; Provide disaster relief; Include you in a hospital directory; Provide mental health care; Market our services and sell your information; Raise funds.

Our Uses and Disclosures. We may use and share your information as we: Treat you; Run our organization; Bill for your services; Help with public health and safety issues; Do research; Comply with the law; Respond to organ and tissue donation requests; Work with a medical examiner or funeral director; Address workers' compensation, law enforcement, and other government requests; and Respond to lawsuits and legal actions

Your Rights. When it comes to your health information, you have certain rights.

This section explains your rights and some of our responsibilities to help you.

Get an electronic or paper copy of your medical record

You can ask to see or get an electronic or paper copy of your medical record and other health information we have about you. Ask us how to do this. We will provide a copy or a summary of your health information, usually within 30 days of your request. We may charge a reasonable, cost-based fee.

Ask us to correct your medical record

You can ask us to correct health information about you that you think is incorrect or incomplete. Ask us how to do this. We may say "no" to your request, but we'll tell you why in writing within 60 days.

Request confidential communications

You can ask us to contact you in a specific way (for example, home or office phone) or to send mail to a different address. We will say "yes" to all reasonable requests.

Ask us to limit what we use or share

You can ask us not to use or share certain health information for treatment, payment, or our operations. We are not required to agree to your request, and we may say "no" if it would affect your care. If you pay for a service or health care item out-of-pocket in full, you can ask us not to share that information for the purpose of payment or our operations with your health insurer. We will say "yes" unless a law requires us to share that information.

Get a list of those with whom we've shared information

You can ask for a list (accounting) of the times we've shared your health information for six years prior to the date you ask, who we shared it with, and why. We will include all the disclosures except for those about treatment, payment, and health care operations, and certain other disclosures (such as any you asked us to make). We'll provide one accounting a year for free but will charge a reasonable, cost-based fee if you ask for another one within 12 months.

Get a copy of this privacy notice

You can ask for a paper copy of this notice at any time, even if you have agreed to receive the notice electronically. We will provide you with a paper copy promptly.

Choose someone to act for you

If you have given someone medical power of attorney or if someone is your legal guardian, that person can exercise your rights and make choices about your health information. We will make sure the person has this authority and can act for you before we take any action.

File a complaint if you feel your rights are violated

You can complain if you feel we have violated your rights by contacting us using the information on page 1. You can file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Office for Civil Rights by sending a letter to 200 Independence Avenue, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20201, calling 1-877-696-6775 or at www.hhs.gov/ocr/privacy/hipaa/complaints/.

We will not retaliate against you for filing a complaint.

Your Choices. For certain health information, you can tell us your choices about what we share.

If you have a clear preference for how we share your information in the situations described below, talk to us. Tell us what you want us to do, and we will follow your instructions.

In these cases, you have both the right and choice to tell us to:

Share information with your family, close friends, or others involved in your care; Share information in a disaster relief situation; Include your information in a hospital directory; If you are not able to tell us your preference, for example if you are unconscious, we may go ahead and share your information if we believe it is in your best interest. We may also share your information when needed to lessen a serious and imminent threat to health or safety.

In these cases, we never share your information unless you give us written permission:

We never market or sell personal information. APRC periodically mails reminders and updates by way of postcard. You may tell us in writing if you prefer to receive this information in a sealed envelope.

Our Uses and Disclosures: How do we typically use or share your health information?

We typically use or share your health information in the following ways.

Treat you

We can use your health information and share it with other professionals who are treating you.

Example: A doctor treating you for an injury asks another doctor about your overall health condition.

Run our organization

We can use and share your health information to run our practice, improve your care, and contact you when necessary.

Example: We use health information about you to manage your treatment and services.

Bill for your services

We can use and share your health information to bill and get payment from health plans or other entities.

Example: We give information about you to your health insurance plan so it will pay for your services.

How else can we use or share your health information?

We are allowed or required to share your information in other ways – usually in ways that contribute to the public good, such as public health and research. We have to meet many conditions in the law before we can share your information for these purposes.

For more information see: www.hhs.gov/ocr/privacy/hipaa/understanding/consumers/index.html.

Help with public health and safety issues

We can share health information about you for certain situations such as: Preventing disease; Helping with product recalls;

Reporting adverse reactions to medications; Reporting suspected abuse, neglect, or domestic violence; Preventing or reducing a serious threat to anyone's health or safety.

Do research

We can use or share your information for health research.

Comply with the law

We will share information about you if state or federal laws require it, including with the Department of Health and Human Services if it wants to see that we're complying with federal privacy law.

Respond to organ and tissue donation requests

We can share health information about you with organ procurement organizations.

Work with a medical examiner or funeral director

We can share health information with a coroner, medical examiner, or funeral director when an individual dies.

Address workers' compensation, law enforcement, and other government requests

We can use or share health information about you: For workers' compensation claims; For law enforcement purposes or with a law enforcement official; With health oversight agencies for activities authorized by law; For special government functions such as military, national security, and presidential protective services

Respond to lawsuits and legal actions

We can share health information about you in response to a court or administrative order, or in response to a subpoena.

Our Responsibilities

We are required by law to maintain the privacy and security of your protected health information. We will let you know promptly if a breach occurs that may have compromised the privacy or security of your information. We must follow the duties and privacy practices described in this notice and give you a copy of it. We will not use or share your information other than as described here unless you tell us we can in writing. If you tell us we can, you may change your mind at any time. Let us know in writing if you change your mind.

For more information see: www.hhs.gov/ocr/privacy/hipaa/understanding/consumers/noticepp.html.
