South Shore Family Chiropractic Terms of Acceptance

When a patient seeks Chiropractic care and when a Chiropractor accepts a patient for such care, it is essential that they both be seeking the same goals.

It is not the goal of this office to treat, nor cure physical, mental, or emotional ailments; nor to diagnose or give advice about such ailments.

Our only goal and intention is to keep the body as free from vertebral subluxations as we can. We do this because of our absolute conviction that every human being functions better on all levels when no subluxations are present.

If at any time your care lapses for 6 months or longer and you choose to re-activate, you will be welcomed into our office once again as a new patient following our new patient protocol.

I _____ undertake Chiropractic Care in the office on the understanding of and (Patient Print Name)
in agreement with the above explanation.

HIPPA: Health Insurance Portability & Accountability Act: Notices of Privacy Practices

This notice describes how information about you may be used and disclosed and how you can get access to this information. Please review carefully. 164.528

Introduction: At SSFC, we are committed to creating and using protected health information about you responsibly. This Notice of Health Information Practices describes the personal information we collect, and how and when we use or disclose that information. It also describes your rights as they relate to your protected health information. This notice is effective immediately and applies to all protected health information as defined by federal regulations.

Understanding your Health Record/Information: Each time you visit SSFC, a record of your visit is made. Typically, this record contains symptoms, examination, and test results, treatment and a plan for future care or treatment. This information, often referred to as your health or medical record serves as a basis for planning your care and treatment, means of communication among many health professionals who contribute to your care, legal document describing the care you received, means by which you or a third-party payer can verify that services billed were provided. A tool in educating health professionals and a source of information for public health officials charged with improving the health of the state and the nation. A source of data for our planning and marketing, a tool with which we can assess and continually work to improve the care we render and the outcomes we achieve. Understanding what is in your record and how your health information is used helps you to: ensure its accuracy, better understand who, what, and why others may access your health information, and make more informed decisions when authorizing disclosure to others.

Your Health Information Rights: Although your health record is the physical property of SSFC, the information belongs to you. You have the right to:

- Obtain a paper copy of this notice of information practices upon request
- Inspect a copy of your health record as provided in 45 CFR 164.524
- Amend your health record as provided in 45 CFR 164.524
- Obtain an accounting of disclosures of your health information as provided in 45 CFR 164.524
- Request communications of your health information by alternative means at alternative locations
- Request a restriction on certain uses of your information as provided by 45 CFR 164.524
- Revoke your authorization to use or disclose health information except to the extent that action has already been taken

Our Responsibilities: SSFC is required to:

- Maintain the privacy of your health information
- Provide you with this notice as to our legal duties and privacy practices with respect to information we collect and maintain about you
- Abide by the terms of this notice
- Notify you if we are unable to agree to a requested restriction
- Accommodate reasonable requests you may have to communicate health information by alternative means or at alternative locations

We reserve the right to change our practices and to make the new provisions effective for all protected health information we maintain. Should our information practices change, we will post these changes in our office. We will not use or disclose your health information without your authorization, except as described in this notice. We will also discontinue using or disclosing your health information after we have received a written revocation of the authorization according to the procedures included in the authorization.

For More Information or to Report a Problem: If you have any questions and would like additional information, you may contact the practice's Privacy Officer, Lori Byrnes at 781-335-7671. If you believe your privacy rights have been violated, you can file a complaint with the practice's Privacy Officer, Lori Byrnes or with the office for Civil Rights, U.S. Department of Health and Human Services. There will be no retaliation for filing a complaint with either the Privacy Officer or the Office of Civil Rights. The online address for the OCR is:

<https://www.mass.gov/how-to/file-a-civil-rights-complaint>

Examples of Disclosures for Treatment, Payment and Health Operations: We will use your health information for treatment. We will use your information for payment. We may disclose information to researchers when their research has been approved by an institutional review board that has reviewed the research proposal and established protocols to ensure the privacy of your health information. We may contact you to provide appointment reminders or information about treatment alternatives or other health-related benefits and services that may be of interest to you. We may disclose health information to the extent authorized by and to the extent necessary to comply with laws relating to Worker's Compensation or other similar programs established by law. As required by law, we may disclose your health information to Public Health or legal authorities charged with preventing or controlling disease, injury, or disability. We may disclose health information to Law enforcement purposed as required by law or in a response to a valid subpoena. Federal law makes provisions for your health information to be released to an appropriate health oversight agency, public health authority or attorney, provided that a work force member or business associate believes in good faith that we have engaged in unlawful conduct or have otherwise violated professional or clinical standards and are potentially endangering one or more patients, workers, or the public.

Personnel Records: It shall be the policy of SSFC to allow the following staff into the Secondary Personnel Records of Employees: Doctor of Chiropractic, Covering Chiropractor, Office Manager, Privacy Manager.

Financial Responsibility for Personal Injuries

- It is YOUR responsibility to provide accurate information concerning your injury within 3 days of starting care at this office. If this information is not provided, you will be presented with a bill, which must be paid in full at that time. It is your responsibility to complete your Personal Injury Protection (PIP) form with your automobile insurance carrier.
- In Massachusetts we are a no-fault insurance state. Based on that, you are entitled to 100% coverage for treatment and wage loss under what is known as PIP (personal injury protection) insurance. The maximum benefit for an automobile accident is usually $2000.00 per person.
- After your $2000.00 is exhausted your health insurance will be billed at that time.
- We will file all the necessary paperwork to process this claim. Although, it is your responsibility to know where you stand at all times concerning this bill at South Shore Family Chiropractic.
- Any payment for services that the company denies or refuses to cover will become your responsibility.
- It is very important that you follow your plan of care so that you do not jeopardize the validity of your injuries.

I have read and understand this policy.
