ARE YOU LOOKING FOR THE BEST JOB EVER!?
YOU'VE FOUND IT!

PRACTICE MANAGEMENT POSITION IN NURTURING AND PROGRESSIVE CHIROPRACTIC CLINIC.

A UNIQUE POSITION FOCUSING ON THE 9 PILLARS OF BUSINESS

Provolution Health is an extraordinary wellness practice looking for an amazing individual. We need a bright, motivated, inspired individual with the right attitude and talents to coordinate and manage the ongoing operating needs of our team and business.

You will assist the director and business by managing and supporting all 9 pillars of the business: Systems Management; Marketing and Sales; Client Management and Reception; Human Resources; Finance; Technology; Staff Management and Development; Property Management and Innovation.

You can expect an above-award salary including an additional outcome focused remuneration package and reward structure.

This position will allow you to make a difference and help expand a business that has been established and operating successfully for 23 years. The team you will be joining is a positive and energetic team, committed to the health and life of our clients. We are looking to grow our business and make powerful changes in the health and lives of our community. We are looking for an outstanding, extraordinary and a all-round amazing person to be part of this exciting journey. I am sure after reading this you have a sense of adventure too!

You can be sure that you will experience growth, fulfilment and meaning in this role – both personally and professionally.

To be successful in this position, the below should describe you:

- Ability to manage multiple projects and competing priorities simultaneously. You are extremely organised.
- A++ problem solving abilities relating to both things and people. Ability to find solutions and “work it out”.
- Strong people management skills and leadership capabilities. You will be supervising 2-3 Chiropractic Assistants.
- Natural initiator - acts and uses initiative without direction or supervision.
- Very proficient in the use of Microsoft Office, social media, web apps and technology in general.
- Amazing communicator with an outgoing, warm and positive personality.
- Self-motivated, focused and highly productive.
- Belief and support of natural approaches to health and well-being.
- Basic to intermediate understanding/experience in Human Resources, Finance Management and Marketing/Sales.
- Experience in a similar role would be advantageous.

Yep, that means you are an absolute ninja!

Ok, now that you know you're a perfect fit for us - send us your CV with a personalised cover letter (send it to marcus@provolutionhealth.com.au) indicating why you think you are the unique, special and high energy person we are looking for—and what it would mean to you to be part of a team that truly cares for you, wants to support you in becoming the best you are capable of being and provide a stimulating, enjoyable and meaningful career.
