Dr. Katelyn Due In June

That's right! Dr. Katelyn is due June 12th and is having a baby girl! You many have noticed she has been slowly weaning off of adjusting and Dr. Lee has been taking the majority of patients. While Dr. Katelyn is gone on leave, Dr. Lee will be the head doctor at the clinic. Dr. Katelyn plans on taking 6-8 weeks for maternity leave. Her goal is to continue adjusting up until her due date if her body allows it. We are so excited and she can't wait to bring in baby to the office for everyone to meet!
